The fine print...

NSU encourages the free exchange of ideas. The university will protect the rights of freedom of speech, expression, petition and peaceful assembly as set forth in the U.S. Constitution. NSU maintains its right to regulate reasonable time, place and manner restrictions concerning acts of expression and dissent

NSU does not have “free speech zones”; all outdoor areas are open for use as public forums, when reserved by students or non-students and as long as the said area is not reserved by another member of the campus community for an event or activity.
