

2021-2022 Verification Worksheet – Independent V4

Your Free Application for Federal Student Aid (FAFSA) was selected for a process called verification. Federal regulations require that we check the accuracy of the information provided on the 2021-2022 FAFSA. Final eligibility for financial aid cannot be determined until the requested documentation is received and reviewed.

Section A. High School Completion Status

Provide one of the following documents that indicate the student's high school completion status when the student will begin college during the 2021-2022 academic year:

- A copy of the student's high school diploma.
- A copy of the student's final official high school transcript that shows the date when the diploma was awarded.
- A copy of the student's General Educational Development (GED) certificate or GED transcript.
- An academic transcript that indicates the student successfully completed at least a two-year program that is acceptable for full credit toward a bachelor's degree.
- If State law requires a homeschooled student to obtain a secondary school completion credential for home-school (other than a high school diploma or its recognized equivalent), a copy of that credential.
- If State law does not require a homeschooled student to obtain a secondary school completion credential for home-school (other than a high school diploma or its recognized equivalent), a transcript or the equivalent, signed by the student's parent or guardian, that lists the secondary school courses the student completed and documents the successful completion of a secondary school education in a home-school setting.

If the student is unable to obtain the documentation listed above, he or she must contact the financial aid office.

Section B. Identity and Statement of Educational Purpose
