

2013-2014

MAP-Works (Making Achievement Possible) Scholarship Essay

Deadline: April 13, 2013

Essay Requirement:

Please provide an answer to one of the three essay questions below about your experience with MAP-Works. Essay must be no fewer than 800 and no more than 1,600 words in length, and must be typewritten and double-spaced. Only one entry per student is allowed.

Essays will be judged on both style and content. The MAP-Works scholarship committee will look for writing that is clear, articulate and logically organized. Winning essays must demonstrate the significance MAP-Works had on your college experience.

In order to be eligible for and receive the MAP-Works Scholarship, students must:

- Attend a college/university that is a current MAP-Works partner
- Be enrolled in either the first or second year at their institution
- Have participated in at least one MAP-Works survey during the 2011/12 and 2012/13 school years
- Complete an application cover page
- Submit an essay of no fewer than 800 and no more than 1,600 words addressing one of the following three essay questions:

1) How did MAP-Works affect your college experience?

2) What did you learn from the MAP-Works student report that caused a change in your college behavior?

3) Was there a person who reached out to help you who had information from MAP-Works? How did that person affect you?

*IMPORTANT: Please do not put the name of your institution in your essay.

Completed applications (including cover page and essay) are due no later than April 13, 2013.

Please email all applications to ebimapscholarship@macmillan.com
Place "MAP-Works Making Achievement Possible Scholarship" in the subject line.